Taittinger Brut Réserve Champagne

Champagne Taittinger is unfailingly proud of the fact that, each year, it produces a brut champagne with a high proportion of Chardonnay and 3 years' aging. It has fine bubbles and long-lasting foam. Open on the nose, it is both fruity and toasty, with aromas of peach, white flowers (hawthorn, acacia) and vanilla.

Burgundy Chardonnay "Kimmeridgien"

Jean-Marc Brocard

Its name conjures up the typical Chablis terroir - soil containing fossilised shells - but the Chardonnay vineyard is situated in Saint-Bris-le-Vineux. The wine is fresh, supple and fruity. Very pleasant when drunk young. It offers notes of lemon, white peach and jellied fruits on the nose and mouth. It is a round and elegant wine.
